

COVID-19 Update - Mayor Bowser Extends Mass Gathering Prohibition

Friday, March 20, 2020

Dear HAWDC Member:

Today, Mayor Bowser extended the prohibition on mass gatherings during a public health emergency until April 25, 2020.

She also announced that she has extended the District of Columbia Government's modified operating status until April 27, including the adjusted DC Government operating posture and distance learning at the District's public schools.

DC Government will operate under an agency-specific telework schedule, continuing to deliver essential services and keep critical systems and services operating. Some government operations will be performed fully remotely, while other services will continue to be performed at public buildings, but under modified operations. At this time, DCPS classes are anticipated to resume on Monday, April 27.

For more information regarding the virus please go to <https://coronavirus.dc.gov> or the CDC's website by clicking here.

HAWDC will continue to share additional updates as they become available.

Regards,
Lisa

Lisa Abrams
Vice President of Government Affairs

Hotel Association of Washington, D.C.
1225 New York Avenue, NW Suite 250
Washington, DC 20005
(202) 289-4448 Direct
(202) 289-8869 Fax
